

CityPlace Residents Association (CPRA), a not-for-profit organization, works to make CityPlace a vibrant and connected community.

We address neighbourhood issues, strive to improve the quality of life for residents, and encourage a sense of pride in our community. We do this through creative use of public space in our neighbourhood, such as establishing an Urban Market, holding a Halloween event for neighbourhood kids, having a Christmas food drive, flower-planting in our park areas, organizing "spring clean-up", etc, as well as the following:

- Advocating on issues for the residents and businesses
- Putting on social events and programs for the community
- Providing a network of resources for the community
- Partnering with neighbouring community organizations (Scadding Court Community Organization, Harbourfront Community Centre), the TCHC, and other stakeholders
- Partnering with area businesses and entrepreneurs for the betterment of residents and the community
- Working with our local City Councillor, our MPP and MP on issues important to our neighbourhood (traffic, community centre, dog park, ice rink, etc)

Come join us and get involved! You need to be a resident of CityPlace to be a member of the CPRA.
